The intent of this show is to honor the Grand River including the north and south banks and parkways, as it flows through Ottawa County. Let us express through Artist's eyes the beauty of the seasons; the glories of the skies, textures of the grasses and ripples of the water. The show will display the blessings of this land with paintings, weavings, pottery, photographs and sculptures, capturing the wonders of our world as homage to our Grand River which brings joy to all inhabitants along the way.

All works must relate to The Grand River Greenway that encompasses the Grand River as it flows through Ottawa County out to the lake.

Artists must be 18 years or older - only original entries created in 2011, and 2012 will be considered

All 2 D work must be wired for hanging - no claw tooth or bare glass edges allowed, and not to exceed 48" in any direction.

Sculpture must be manageable in respect to weight- and display.

Artists must agree to pick up selected and unselected works on designated dates showing ID or written permission from artist.

Drop off will be Sat. Feb. 25, 2012 - 10 AM - 6 PM

Juror selections made Sunday, and Artists of unselected works will be called to pick up on Monday Feb. 27 between 10 AM - 6 PM
